| FOR MAINE RESIDENTS: Consumer reports (credit reports) may be obtained in connection with your loan application. (1) If you request, you will be informed whether or not consumer reports were obtained. (2) If reports were obtained, if you request, you will be informed of the names and addresses of the consumer reporting agencies (credit bureaus) that furnished the reports. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | . , | | | | |
| FOR NEW YORK RESIDENTS: Upon request, the applicant(s) will be informed whether or not a consumer report was requested, and if such report was requested, informed of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report. I/We have the right to ask you for the name and address of the credit bureau which gave you that credit history. FOR OHIO RESIDENTS: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

| To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each customer who opens an account. Therefore, all new and existing customers are subject to the identity verification requirements. When a customer opens an account with any entity within the Diverse Offerings Finance family of lenders, we will ask for the customer's name, address and identification number, and, in the case of an individual, his or her date of birth. For business accounts, we may also obtain this information for individuals associated with the business. We may also request to see a driver's license or other identifying documents. In all cases, Diverse Offerings Finance is committed to protecting the privacy and identity of each of its customers. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
